The Formation and Background of the Bridge for Development Organization (BDO)

Ethiopia is one of the countries with the weakest social infrastructure, widespread poverty and rapid population. Our country is a country of teenagers and young people. As a result, these groups are exposed to a variety of related problems: addiction, unemployment, HIV / AIDS, harmful traditional practices, gender-based violence, and reproductive health problems.

BDO is a board-led, non-governmental community service organization nonprofit. It was established in October 2012 and licensed by the Federal Civil Society Agency under Registration No. 4509.

Vision:

The vision of BDO is to see women, children, adolescents and young people live healthy, happy and decent lives in Ethiopia.

Mission:

The mission of BDO is to enable women, children and young people in need of special support to receive health and education support and job and life skills training to develop employability, motivation and self-confidence.

Goal:

BDO's goal is to improve the health and well-being of women, children, adolescents and young people.

Programs Directions:

- Child development, protection, care and education.
- Protection of women and girls, health, life skills and education.
- Adolescent health, life skills and education.
- Advocacy in relation to women, children and youth.

Office and Service Locations:

Currently, the Addis Ababa City Administration, Amhara and Oromia regions are considered, but the organization does not have a general border and ethnic area.

The main strategies □

- Communicate with key partners and associations and form partnerships
- Gather resources and experts.
- Organizational and human capacity building.
- Develop current organizational policies
- Use modern and up-to-date ICT and MIS

Values and principles:

The organization's values, principles, and beliefs include: Equal opportunities, universal human rights, transparency, and readiness to accept positive change, gender equality, humanity, loyalty, cooperation, and fairness.

Source of input:

It is a new indigenous charity that has not been linked to any donors so far. We have a variety of needs that need support to fulfill our mission to build organizational capacity. As a result, it is working to create a resource base and to find donors, and we are carrying out the day-to-day activities of its volunteers.
