

Step 2: Hope after the earthquake

Actions of the Fondation Orient Occident in the region of Al Haouz

This report put the light on the actions undertaken by the Foundation Orient-Occident (FOO) in the region of Al Haouz in Morocco, following the earthquake that hit the region. Thanks to the support of donors like Global Giving, the FOO was able to give a humanitarian aid and a crucial support to the affected communities.

Needs assessment and immediate response

Rigorous assessments realised by FOO's teams in the field permitted to identify the most urgent needs for the affected villages. Facing the emergency of the situation, the FOO has oriented its work on the most isolated villages and the most severely hit.

Actions of the Foundation Orient-Occident

Scolar kits distribution : More than 220 scolar kits have been distributed among 8 villages, offering students essential school supplies for their studies.

Artistic caravan: An artistic caravan took place every month, benefiting children from 4 different villages with games, theatre and manual activities.

Artistic workshop: Various artistic workshops, including painting, handicraft and story-telling, were organised to entertain and educate the children affected by the earthquake.

Menstrual hygiene workshop: Workshops were organised in order to raise awareness on menstruations and hygiene among the girls of the rural area. Underwear sets and educative guides were also distributed.

Workshop on preventions against sexual exploitation : Workshops were organised to educate children and social workers on the dangers of sexual exploitation. Books and pens were also distributed to promote women's literacy.

A day for the environment in Tinmel : A day was dedicated to educate children on the protection of the environment through drawing activities, painting and cleaning.

School tutoring : Students having followed school tutoring classes have shown significant improvements in their studies, with a success rate reaching 80%.

The provided support permitted to respond to the essential needs of children and families, to promote the education and awareness, and to offer a glimpse of hope in these difficult times.

The FOO expresses its profound gratitude towards Global Giving and all the donors for the continuous support. Thanks to your generosity, the FOO can keep on making the difference in the lives of people in need.

A call for action

While the communities of Al Haouz endeavour to rebuild their community, the FOO still needs your support. Your contribution will allow us to provide humanitarian aid, to promote community development and rebuild hope for the children and families of the region.
