

Help the poor & needy with Winter Clothes/blanket

 PATHWAY[®]

Project Summary

A large part of people in Bangladesh enjoy winter. But it becomes a harsh reality for the poor in this country. When people struggle to fulfill their rights, it is not possible for them to buy warm clothes in bitter winters. 'PATHWAY' has been distributed among the needy and helpless for a long time. The aim of this project is to maintain the continuity of these activities.

Challenge

Due to the decrease in temperature in Bangladesh in winter, the poor and helpless people suffer from a lack of warm clothes. Apart from the economically backward, people from socially backward communities also face harsh realities in these adverse times.

Solution

Through this project, we will distribute blankets and winter clothes to helpless and distressed people. This is a big campaign through which winter clothing will be delivered to the underprivileged in phases.

Long-Term Impact

Blankets will be distributed to 11,800 helpless and disadvantaged people through this project. That will protect them from the harshness of winter for several years.

Help the poor & needy with Winter Clothes/blanket.

Story of works

Bangladesh is a country of six seasons. Winters are a source of hardship for many in this country. Many people cannot afford winter clothes or blankets due to poor economic conditions. Especially for the poor people of North Bengal and the coast, winter brings a curse.

Last winter we took into account the suffering of people in coastal areas. As a result, winter clothes (blankets) were distributed among about 200 families in Kalapara of Patuakhali coastal area. 250 blankets were distributed among the families from this project. It will benefit about 500+ people.

In addition to the coast, the winter blanket distribution program has also been conducted among the marginalized people of different cities including Dhaka. This year blanket distribution program has been conducted among a total of 500 families across the country.
