A TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

The children learned about the traditions, customs, cuisine, language, and much more from our volunteers' countries. It was a fun and educational morning where they were able to interact, ask questions, participate in cultural activities, and try typical dishes. Through games, music, dance, and group activities, they explored new cultures and broadened their worldview. It was undoubtedly an enriching experience that encouraged respect, curiosity, and an appreciation for diversity. Thank you to all the volunteers for sharing a little piece of their country with us!

2.

SAN JUAN FESTIVAL

On Saturday, June 21st, we celebrated the San Juan festival. It was a day filled with joy, games, dancing, traditional food, and, of course, chicha. The children spent a very special morning with the volunteers, where they not only had fun but also learned about and appreciated their customs in an atmosphere of respect and joy.

SPECIAL MESSAGE

In July, the Casa Ainbo team will take a trip with our children and volunteers to Pilpintuwasi, a butterfly farm and rescue center located in Padrecocha, in the city of Iquitos. This trip is very important, as our Casa Ainbo children will fulfill their role as Guardians of the Itaya. a responsibility that grows stronger and more meaningful for them each year.
