INTRODUCTION

Promise Giving Organization is a non-profit making organization situated in Embakasi West Tena Estate Nairobi County. It is registered with the Ministry of East Africa Community, Labour and social protection department of social development and heritage as a charitable Institution. Promise Giving Organization takes care of the abandoned, orphaned, the neglected and whose rights have been violated. Formed in July 2014 out of a desire to support, restore, empowering and bringing hope to children, vulnerable women and youth affected by wars, sexual violence, sexual exploitation and abuse, victim survived of torture and deprived of human rights. Our priority is to investing in people, and we are committed to giving assistance to those in need regardless of religion, race, nationality or gender. Our vision is to help the Community especially women and children and the displaced people affected by wars, famine, disease, ignorance, violence, poverty or privates of human rights positively reshaped and restore. We specifically focus to support the affected children, the poor and marginalized and the displaced people through our crosscutting programs by providing Education; healthcare; human right and protection advocacy; Community development programs; social assistance; and volunteer program. Our being is to help the affected women and children to integrate in the community and aspire for a better future, to support technically the feminine development initiative actions and projects. Also, to network and partner with other organizations, NGOs (Non- Governmental Organizations), CBOs (Community Based Organization). Associations and individuals to provide support effective intervention, training and assistance. Promise Giving Organization is more engaged in the services of supporting, restoring and bringing hope to refugees' women and children and our desire is that we address their suffering in appropriate and caring manner.

VISION

To provide safe, caring and loving environment for the children and Communities where their caregivers are empowered to improve their own livelihood through appropriate and affordable alternatives.

MISSION

To restore hope among vulnerable children and provide them with basic and secondary needs such as Food, Shelter, Education, Clothes, Medical Care, Recreation, Parental and Spiritual Guidance.

Identification of these Vulnerable affected women:

These vulnerable affected women are from various background such as from poor family, abandoned by their husbands, HIV/ AIDS Positive rejected by their families, victims of human trafficking, those born out of rape, vulnerable immigrant, orphans, widows, single mothers. Promise Giving Organization works to support the vulnerable affected women, children and youth from different communities. Many women have been forced in prostitution, victims of sexual violence, rape, survived of torture, HIV/AIDS positive, forced labour, human trafficking, widows, orphans, and poor family. These continue to increase in number in this communities, today there is no specific program aiming at training them specially to have skills and to support them.

PROBLEM STATEMENT

Many women are victims of Gender Based Violence then after are rejected by their husband, families, societies and communities. They have nowhere to stay, nothing to eat and cannot access the basic needs.

Vulnerable women are more and more vulnerable because of their status, some have been victims of human trafficking, immigrant, and war etc. and they have no one to support or help them. As a result, they have been for many times victims of the unlawful arrest, sexual abuse, defilement, forced labor, forced prostitution, sexual exploitation, accused of many crimes in the city, unwanted pregnancies, discrimination by the whole community, sexual transmitted diseases. Their fate is determined on the streets of Nairobi day and night where they are always called prostitutes, thieves at the end they are arrested, sentenced and sent to prison for many years.

We have noticed the problem of attitude of some people who have a negative perception of the Kenyan systems and think vulnerable women are just for short term situation. They do not encourage the women to access training skills, to go school, to develop themselves. Many vulnerable women who are used in forced prostitution and other sexual practices most of them are due to the lack of support and the poor social lives in order to meet their basic needs and to pay the house rent.

PROBLEM SOLUTION

My community has more than 28,000 vulnerable women living in poverty. Having observed that these women face the first hardship lack of skills and others to real cope up with the realities of life in this community, it was then requested that sewing and tailoring training skills is the very first step to follow and the ability to freely help them get a job for some is part of the solutions to their problems.

Today they are only less than 50 vulnerable women who have access to sewing and tailoring program and this because of some limitations in centers operating these programs to them.

This time there are 5 women under Promise Giving Organization who are active in offering services to others, two among them are from Feronia school of tailoring who are instructors for sewing and tailoring training center at Promise Giving Organization Home. After analyzing the problem affecting these women in this community Promise Giving Organization initiated sewing and tailoring training center and caring programs for them. We have registered 100 vulnerable affected women and only 4 have already started training in sewing and tailoring skills.

This training is also a gesture to prepare them for real integration in the community and other development programs. Promise Giving Organization has looked for shelter for those who have nowhere to stay, we take to the hospital those who are sick, we provide special shelter to those who are sexual abuse and help them with food. We support the affected women by providing the basic needs.

Goals and Objectives

1]To rehabilitate the victims by creating employment, supporting them and helping to use their talents and to prevent future violence by empowering women, young girls by making them discover and use their talent in sewing and tailoring skills.

2]To help and support women economically, socially and morally.

3]To promote Gender and to fight sexual abuse against women and young girls.

Mandate: Orphanage, School, Women & Youths Empowerment, Street Families & Elderly.

PROJECT IMPLEMENTATION PLAN

Methodology

Enrollment

There are ongoing information sessions about the necessity to women to be trained with sewing/ tailoring skills at our office and more campaigns will be done by Promise Giving Organization members where they will be visiting place to place where vulnerable women are living. Still all religious leaders and community leaders will be involved in this sensitization by doing it hand in hand with them. More information sessions will be organized in all places and announcements will be made in public places. We believe that vulnerable affected women need to be identified, counseled, given a chance to achieve self-development. Mobilization of the community by carrying out community meetings, to sensitize the women and the community so as to make them aware of importance of sewing and tailoring skills for the socio-economic development.

Who will train these women?

Trainers are Promise Giving Organization members who are taking care of these affected women and any other person who may be interested to offer services to them such as volunteers and interns. Trainers are volunteers who are giving out their efforts for the better life of these women.

Where the Training will take place and duration of the training

The teaching is taking place at Umoja Tena Estate Moi drive road and other designated areas in Nairobi as Promise Giving Organization may see it necessary.

The sewing and tailoring training skills is for a period of six months where those students who complete are award with a certificate and encourage to continue put in practice all he has been taught.

Mandate: Orphanage, School, Women & Youths Empowerment, Street Families & Elderly.

Achievements

The number of students has increased; the department has two teachers for the two session programs. The department has done everything possible to maintain the program. The program has helped many Vulnerable women to get busy and therefore forget their hard experience they went through and to reduce their trauma. Determination of instructors to offer a service to their fellow vulnerable women at the cost of self-sacrifice.

Challenges

Challenge in the Sewing/Tailoring class include poverty problems slow learners, and lack of support from the government, Non-Governmental Organizations and community, little facilities and training materials.

Students present different interests sewing / tailoring training so it has been hard to get a homogeneous class.

Lack of sewing training machines for the training facilities, chairs, tables, and books in Sewing and Tailoring training subjects

Lack of fund for the program, the program is funded through the contribution of Promise Giving Organization well-wishers.

Few instructors and little allowances given to them and sometime no allowances because we have no enough funds.
