Project Title Education in non-violence against girls

In the Democratic Republic of Congo, particularly in the Territories of Uvira and Fizi , young girls constitute a group of the most marginalized people, they generally experience problems of sexual and gender-based violence. They are affected by prejudice, sexual exploitation in several forms, early marriages, disproportionate workload and insufficient access to property rights. In developing this project, we plan to raise awareness of peace and non-violence through the Alternatives to Violence Program "AVP" approach, human rights training for school leaders, teachers, local authorities, leaders, young people, community actors, and parents to show them the intrinsic values of the girl as such, to introduce gender equality without discrimination. This project is oriented in 24 schools including 8 primary schools and 16 secondary schools in Uvira and Swima in the Tanganika sector in the Fizi territory .

Funding Amount /Goal: USD

This project will contribute to the promotion of a culture of peace and the reduction of cases of violence for social cohesion within the communities of Uvira and Swima .

The young people girl from Uvira and Fizi are exposed to risks social , environmental and health. violence made to young people girls in the local community are not documented and result in sexually transmitted infections transmissible , their rights are not respected , they are manipulated and influenced by ignorance, customs and traditions retrograde prohibit girls and women from coming to the estate of their deceased parents , which creates conflicts family . To the latter, several members of some families kill each other when dividing the deceased 's property .

This project is designed to contribute to young girls knowing their rights and the preventive measures against STIs, Create an environment In which young people girls and others community members can gather and work in a climate harmonious . , reduce cases of violence for social cohesion within communities, Promoting the culture of peace , non-violence through capacity building on the AVP (Altenatives to Violence Project) approach .

This project will have a positive impact on our local community. 80 young girls aged 14 to 20 will be trained on the protection and rights of young girls. 40 heads of establishments, teachers, local authorities, civil society actors, parents will be trained on the rights of young girls. 100 parents from different communities will be trained on the right to inheritance without distinction of gender. 40 girls who are victims of violence will benefit from psychosocial support. Twelve programs produced and rebroadcast on the Uvira Community Radio on respect for the rights of women and girls. 80 community leaders from Uvira and Swima will be trained on the AVP approach and adopt non-violent behavior within the communities.
