3. Security situation in the African Great Lakes Region

We are living in insecurity: the city of Goma has been captured by M23 rebels. This is causing psychosis in Bukavu. This is affecting the business and learning climate in Bukavu.

Although the return of peace remains timid, the security situation in Uvira is gradually returning after a very worrying period of almost a month where we recorded deaths (civilians and soldiers, cases of sexual violence and systematic looting of state offices) after a clash following the tension due to a leadership conflict between the local armed groups known as WAZALENDO and the armed forces of the Democratic Republic of Congo "FARDC", as a result of this situation, socio-economic activities were paralyzed, especially schools, mistrust between communities remains perceptible and human rights violations are very worrying.
