Objective

We seek a partnership and support to provide 1,500 shelters to Gazan displaced people.

Summary

The conflict in Gaza has devastated entire neighborhoods, destroying over 150,000 homes and displacing 1.9 million people—90% of the population. Families have lost not only their homes but also their belongings and memories. With nowhere to live, they are seeking shelter in damaged schools and hospitals. Your support can provide them with the shelter they desperately need in this time of crisis..

Challenge

The humanitarian crisis in Gaza is worsening, with up to 1.7 million people—over 80% of the population—displaced from their homes. Families are forced to seek refuge in overcrowded schools, makeshift shelters, or even out in the open, with little protection from the elements. The lack of proper shelter has led to severe overcrowding, rapidly spreading disease, and deteriorating living conditions. Many who fled to so-called safe areas have faced further attacks, leaving them with nowhere to go. Nowhere in Gaza is truly safe. In response, we are providing emergency shelter solutions, including tarpaulins and tents, to offer displaced families some security, dignity, and protection as they endure this crisis

Long Term Impact

This project will provide urgent relief while also building a foundation for long-term recovery in Gaza. By addressing the critical need for shelter, we help prevent the spread of disease, reduce suffering, and protect the most vulnerable families. Safe, temporary housing offers stability amid chaos, allowing communities to begin the slow process of healing and rebuilding. Over time, these shelters become a stepping stone toward rehabilitation, giving families the security they need to plan for the future. Additionally, sustained aid efforts will strengthen resilience, ensuring that displaced families have access to the resources necessary to recover, rebuild their lives, and restore hope for generations to come.

Call to Action

The people of Gaza are facing unimaginable hardship, with millions displaced and nowhere safe to go. You can make a difference. Your support can provide urgent shelter, protection, and hope to families in desperate need. Every donation helps deliver emergency tents and tarpaulins, offering relief to those with nowhere else to turn. Act now—stand with the people of Gaza and help provide the shelter they desperately need. Donate today and be a lifeline for those in crisis.
