

THE EPISCOPAL REFUGEE NETWORK NEWLY-ARRIVED REFUGEES

Newcomers receive support in the following ways:

Providing household goods, electronics, furniture and clothing

Delivering food to empty pantries

Registering children for schools

Providing orientation sessions on handling discrimination at school and elsewhere

By helping:

To locate apartments

With documentation for apartment leases, social security, drivers licenses

To fill out medical and health forms

Furniture,
household
goods, etc
are donated

The Episcopal Refugee Network
has its own independent 501 (c) 3 tax exempt status.

WE NEED YOUR FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO KEEP THESE SERVICES GOING.

Contributions, large and small, are the life-blood of the Network's services. They support the work of the staff, the tutoring program, and provide for the truck to make deliveries of household goods. Larger donations to help pay salaries would be very helpful. Our translation services from Arabic, Dinka, Karen and Burmese into English are vital to our work.

PAID STAFF:

Executive Director, Sudanese caseworker, Karen's caseworker and driver. All five staff members are former refugees from the wars of Southern Sudan and Myanmar.

Staff members are ably assisted by more than 80 volunteers in distributing food and other goods and in the tutoring programs

JOBS ARE VITAL TO SURVIVAL

Newly-arrived refugees, especially women, who often have no formal education, need help to find classes and training programs.
