

What are Chamber Parties?

These fun, intimate parties give guests a chance to sample delectable morsels, savor delicious wines, and enjoy a concert or recital by CMNW artists in the comfort of the homes of CMNW patrons.

Calidore String Quartet with David Shifrin and party host Karen Deveney.

Get to know fellow arts lovers, CMNW's extraordinary artists, and make new friends all while supporting an incredible cause!

Support Education & Outreach Activities

Proceeds from CMNW's Chamber Parties benefit our extensive Education & Outreach activities.

In the 2016-17 Season, CMNW served over 12,600 community members including over 9,600 youth in over 50 activities spread through the metropolitan area.

These activities include:

- School concerts and assemblies
- Community concerts
- Family concerts and instrument petting zoos
- Masterclasses and coachings
- Pre-concert musical conversations
- Coffee with the Composer discussions
- A composition competition
- Private concerts at senior centers, medical facilities, and social service agencies
- Panel discussion and lectures
