Network for Human and Social Development

Introduction

Network for Human and Social Development (NHSD) is a national organization working for vulnerability reduction of communities and the institutions in Pakistan. It is a bridge between Social and Humanitarian development, a think tank in support of the national disaster risk management programmes in the country and the promotion of disaster risk reduction research and learning through both traditional and scientific education. We focus on capacity building, social mobilization, and empowerment of organizations and communities for the betterment of Pakistan.

It is a non-profit institution in Pakistan for building capacity of the institutions/communities according to national and international standard to bring together local and international practitioners, professional and researcher of diverse background to pool their expertise and experience in response to high demand for 21st century.

Ration and Tent Distribution:

Jalalpur Pirwala and Shujaabad Flood Relief Efforts

The Network for Human and Social Development (NHSD), in collaboration with Kaus-e-Kazah Organization (KKO), Lacompte, and Reach to Be Heard, has been working tirelessly to provide relief to flood-affected communities in Jalalpur Pirwala and Shujaabad.

Background Recent floods in Jalalpur Pirwala and Shujaabad have caused significant damage to homes and infrastructure, leaving many families without access to basic necessities. The NHSD, KKO, Lacompte, and Reach to Be Heard have joined forces to provide critical support to these communities.
