

Oh Say, Can You 'C'

Speaking Tour for Palestine

with teacher/blogger Morgan Bach

A Kindergarten keeps Al Aqaba Village standing despite demolition orders. Learn about interfaith building projects there and new ways to reach Congress here on behalf of 149 Palestinian towns at-risk in Area C.

Sunday, Nov. 4th

11am-Noon

First Unitarian Universalist

Congregation of Ann Arbor

4001 Ann Arbor-Saline Road

Ann Arbor MI 48103

Morgan Bach is the visitor coordinator for the Al Aqaba Village Guest House where she spent eight months volunteering as teacher, writer, and filmmaker. A graduate of Whitman College, she found Al Aqaba through Rebuilding Alliance's campaign to save the kindergarten that hundreds of Americans helped build. 160 children now go to school there! Morgan will share her stories, photos and films to introduce Al Aqaba and discuss Area C, the 62% of the West Bank controlled solely by Israel where over 12,000 demolition orders have been issued by the Israeli Army to Palestinian livelihood structures.

C, the 62% of the West Bank controlled solely by Israel where over 12,000 demolition orders have been issued by the Israeli Army to Palestinian livelihood structures.

Rebuilding Alliance

This speaking event is sponsored by First Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Ann Arbor and Rebuilding Alliance. Questions? Call 650 440-9667

www.RebuildingAlliance.org