

We give women self-esteem and confidence to make informed decisions.

Their voice grows in the home, the community and the country.

Women become empowered to affect positive socio-economic and political change.

