

Out of This World! Sponsor

Opportunity: Sponsorship supporting Longview World of Wonders and a one-day science expo featuring The Traveling Space Museum, with a guest speaker at an evening event.

The Traveling Space Museum is bringing 12 large-scale, and fully functional simulators, and other exhibits to Longview. Local businesses and organizations will be invited to participate by providing additional hands-on activities for youth, highlighting math, science, engineering and technology. Coming September 2012.
